

Subdivisions

By definition, a subdivision is the division or re-division of land into two or more parcels/lots, building sites, or other divisions.

In some developments, this process is required before building permits are secured. If this is applicable to your situation, please contact the Zoning Administrator's Office to discuss the requirements for this process.

Copies of the County Subdivision Regulations are available for purchase in the Zoning Administrator's office.