

Civil and Domestic eFiling

Worth County Superior Court will accept electronically filed documents in general civil and domestic relations cases.

To get started, visit www.peachcourt.com and register for your PeachCourt account.

Please keep the following in mind:

- Self Represented Litigants are not required to eFile but this free service is strongly recommended. There's a computer available for Pro Se to eFile through PeachCourt in the office.
- Filing fees and costs are processed electronically through PeachCourt at the time of filing. The Civil filing fee is $212.50 without Sheriffs' service and $50 per defendant for Sheriffs' service.
- PeachCourt uses email to provide you with alerts related to your filings.

Court forms may be found here. USE THE FORMS ON THIS SITE AT YOUR OWN RISK: In no event will the Court Administrator, Clerk of Court or any person contributing to the development of these forms or instructions be liable for any damages resulting from the use of this packet. These forms may not be appropriate for your particular case. In addition, due to the changing nature of the law, the information in these instructions and forms may be or become outdated. You should review any statutes (laws) mentioned in the packets to make sure the forms are current. It is strongly recommended that you obtain the services of an attorney.

Our mission is to provide every citizen with the greatest possible access to the justice system.