

The Worth County Animal Control involves a combination of animal investigation, care and education. Our animal control workers patrol public areas, respond to service calls, or work in our local shelter.

They also help control abandoned and unattended animals, investigate the mistreatment or abuse of pets, determine if an animal is dangerous, or help to remove a dangerous animal.

View PDF